RESURRECTION – THE RESPONSE OF THE FATHER

When Mary of Magdala goes to visit the tomb of Jesus she expects to make a rendezvous with death. It is very early on the first day of the week. It is still dark, but there is light enough to see that the stone has been moved from the entrance to the tomb. Mary's reaction is not immense relief that Jesus is not dead. She does not cheat herself with that mad groundless hope. The only conclusion she can come to is that some unknown people must have stolen the dead body of Jesus. Even in death Jesus is not allowed to rest in peace.

When Simon Peter and the Beloved Disciple hear Mary's story they run to the tomb. The account in John's Gospel is clearly written in favour of the Beloved Disciple. When Peter enters the tomb he sees the burial clothes; when the Beloved Disciple enters the tomb he sees and he believes. The disciple who was closest to Jesus in love is the one who is first to believe in him as the risen Lord. Perhaps the Beloved Disciple reckoned that if someone had stolen the body he would not have taken the trouble to strip the body first and then roll up the burial clothes. Or perhaps the evangelist John is simply telling us that beloved disciples are always the first to get to the heart of the matter. For the heart of the resurrection is the matter of love.

What we celebrate in the resurrection is God's liberating love for his beloved Son. Resurrection is the Father's response to the cross, his defiant answer to a world that hoped violence could keep Jesus in its hold. In raising Jesus from the dead God raised every value that Jesus stood for, every story that Jesus told, every preference that Jesus made, every purpose that Jesus followed. All this was given new life and new significance.

If death had spoken the final word about Jesus, it would only have been a matter of time before everything about Jesus would have been reduced to a curiosity, a forgettable footnote in the crowded history of lost causes. But God had the last word. As indeed he had the first. The resurrection of Jesus was not a hysterical invention of people who refused to accept the death of their master. On the contrary, resurrection is the original act of accepting Jesus' death. The Father's act of raising Jesus from the dead is the Father's way of accepting his Son's death. Jesus is wakened to new life by the applause of his Father, by the sheer energy of his Father's love, by the loud shout of his Father's gratitude. The dead Jesus has no alternative but to rise to the occasion. The tomb can never be his permanent address.

The Good News is that the Father's affirmation is not confined to Jesus; it is extended to all who follow the way of the beloved Son. As Paul says in today's second reading: "When Christ is revealed - and he is your life - you too will be revealed in all your glory with him." In the meantime, however, we struggle to let some of that glory shine through our halting efforts to follow the Lord. We know the way of the cross leads to our own doorstep and that we are challenged to take it. But it also leads us to the Father's ultimate affirmation, to the God who will laugh us out of our tombs. Today let us bless the God who insists on having the last laugh!

NOAH' the movie starring Russell Crowe as Noah. The film was inspired by the epic story of courage, sacrifice and hope. Directed by visionary filmmaker Darren Aronofsky. It has been described by some as a 'bizarre' film. It has had incredibly mixed reviews from 'Astonishing and miraculous' to 'A captivating but flawed epic'. Why not see it and make up your own mind.

 The Pope Tweets: @Pontifex With Jesus our life becomes full. With him everything makes sense.

 Papal Prayer Intention If we want to cultivate peace, we must protect creation. The condition of our planet and its resources are directly linked to the wellbeing of the people who live on it. The way we decide to share and ensure a sustainable future, determines how just or unjust a legacy we create. The quest for peace will become easier if all acknowledge the indivisible relationship between God, human beings and the whole of creation. The duty to protect creation falls to each of us, but as individuals there is only so much we can achieve. We are asked in addition to put pressure on our governments to act in non self-ish and non greedy interests. This month we join in Pope Francis' prayer intention

"That governments may foster the protection of creation and the just distribution of natural resources."

 Urbi Et Orbi Today Pope Francis will celebrate Easter Sunday Mass in St. Peter's Square at 10:15am, followed by his Easter address urbi et orbi (to the city of Rome and the world) from the loggia of St. Peter's Basilica at midday. Tune in.

 CANONISATION OF BLESSED POPE JOHN XXIII AND BLESSED POPE JOHN II on Sunday 27 April. On Divine Mercy Sunday Pope Francis will Canonise Popes John XXIII & John Paul II.

Asked to describe the two late popes, Pope Francis said Blessed John was "a bit of the 'country priest,' a priest who loves each of the faithful and knows how to care for them; he did this as a bishop and as a nun-cio."

He was holy, patient, had a good sense of humour. By calling the Second Vatican Council, he proved he was a man of courage. He was a man who let himself be guided by the Lord."

As for Blessed John Paul, Pope Francis told the reporters "I think of him as 'the great missionary of the church,'" because he was "a man who proclaimed the Gospel everywhere".

COLLECTIONS FOR APRIL:

THE EASTER OFFERING 20th April: As is traditional the collection at Easter is for Fr David & Fr Vincent and forms a part of their ordinary income for the year. They will be very grateful for whatever you can give at this time.

 Saint George is popularly identified with England and English ideals of honour, bravery and gallantry, but actually he wasn't English at all. Saint George was a Roman soldier who protested against the Roman's torture of Christians and died for his beliefs.

The popularity of St George in England stems from the time of the early Crusades, when it is said that the Normans saw him in a vision and were victorious. The most famous legend of Saint George is of him slaying a dragon. In the Middle Ages the dragon was commonly used to represent he Devil. Because St George's day falls on a day within the Easter Octave its solemnity has been transferred to 28th April.

 SPECIAL THANKS FROM FR DAVID & FR VINCENT TO ALL WHO HELPED US CELEBRATE LENT & EASTER: To our Deacons, Steve & Ian, to Tony for advice and keeping us all in check, to Irene for liturgical preparation & music, to our choir (St Michaels) & music arrangers (St Bernards), to our Servers, to Ministers of the Word and Communion, Childrens' Liturgy Catechists, to our Welcomers, to cleaners, flower arrangers, Collectors & Collection Auditors and to all those who pray for others.

IF YOU ARE IN LYMINGTON ON EASTER MONDAY: Please come and support the opening, to passers by, of the Church of Our Lady of Mercy and St Joseph in Lymington on Easter Monday, 21st April, from 10 am until 3pm.

This is an event of the Diocesan's 'Court of the Gentiles' where we create space for those who are seeking to be quiet, light a candle, be still and then, afterwards, have coffee and conversation if they want to.
