Ss. Peter and Paul

This feast celebrates two founders of community who shared in the sufferings of Christ as an intrinsic part of that development work. Their role is fleshed out from the Acts of the Apostles and from Paul's letters and combines the task of evangelisation with a willingness to endure persecution for their public commitment to operating in Jesus' name.

Acts describes a Peter who is in prison and facing severe punishment for his proclamation of the risen Jesus. Yet his ministry is not finished and God's angels intervene to release him to continue his vocation of working for the growth and support of Christian community. It is interesting to note the role of that same community in achieving his release as they pray continually to God on his behalf. The writer of Acts understands the prayer of the community as effective in working with God's own power to further the divine plan of establishing Christian communities. The life and action of Peter are given greater significance by this means. God, divine messenger and human worshippers combine to free a powerful community leader to return to the heart of his group and to strengthen it in his turn.

The Epistle text pictures Paul as also giving all his energies to community building among the followers of Christ and suffering in consequence. The chosen metaphor for this is the popular sport of the day, the Games. His life constitutes the liberation or offering poured out at the start of a race and his preaching has been the race itself. Once again this action is situated within God's own energies. As Paul runs his race, preaches the gospel of Christ, he encounters much opposition – symbolised by meeting a hostile lion on the road. But God has intervened to keep him alive so that God's own message can be proclaimed. It is in his role as righteous judge that God both protects Paul and also draws him on to complete his ministry. Paul imagines God as the magistrate standing at the winning post holding the Victor's crown out to the one who keeps on doing his task to its full completion. The text from Matthew provides a focus for these stories. The central event in this scene, the acknowledgement of Jesus as Mesiah, as Anointed by God and so a royal son, is attached to central symbols in this passage, to the images of rock, of church, of gates and of keys. The community of those who share a confession of faith is like a building built on a rock. But this building is also dynamic, a force which can break down the gates of the underworld and take it over. The building on the rock has its own gates but these have keys which can offer a proper mode of entrance. The figure of Peter is symbolically both rock and keys. He is the means by which others can find a way into the community through an opened door. At the same time he can close the door to prevent evil forces entering. In these images the function of the Founder Disciple is set out. Such a person is called to give all human energy and effort to the tasks of founding and caring for Christian community whatever the personal cost.

If you wish someone to be included for prayers here, or if the person being prayed for is now well & you would like their name removed, speak to Deacons Ian or Steve, or Linda via the Parish office.

PARISHIONER CONTACT DETAILS:

There are over 900 names on the database! The average attendance on a Sunday is 148 + 18 children, so we have a long way to go to get this information up to date. Your now grown up children or families may have moved away and they are probably still on this database. The Bishop has started visiting parishes. We have a 9 page document to fill in before his visit (I stress we don't know when he'll be coming to us yet). One of the questions is about the parish census. So please send me your details so I can prune down this list. I will eventually have to delete those I haven't heard from. I am happy to have the details via email if that's easier. watersidecp@btinternet.com

I need your address, the names & DOB of those living at your property, telephone numbers & email addresses:

- * if you are a new parishioner
- * if have moved house recently,
- * and even if you have lived there forever!

There are a number of statistics I have to use the data for, but I can assure you names and address details don't get passed to anyone else. Should a parishioner ask for your telephone number or address I do not give it out without your permission. (Linda)

THE FUNERAL for the late Nora Newman will be at St Michael's on Tuesday 30th June at 12noon, followed by a cremation at Southampton Crematorium. May she rest in peace.

FIND A CATHOLIC CHURCH WHEN ON HOLIDAY

www.Masstimes.org

A great website for locating a church anywhere around the world and its Mass times ... or that's the proud boast. Give it a try.

The St. Martha Group wish to thank the parishioners and friends who attended the quiz night on 13th June. It was nice to see some new faces there. They would also like to thank Dave King for compiling the questions. All agreed that it was a fun evening which raised £241 for the parish funds.

WELCOME to Ella Fleur Katrina Ratucocko & Sebastian David Borzecki who will be baptised during the 11am Mass at SM's today.(28th)

THANK YOU to Faith, Hope & Charity for their contribution of £1,453.00 to Parish funds.

POPE FRANCIS' ENCYCLICAL ON THE ENVIRONMENT AND PETITION TO PRIME MINISTER IN SUPPORT

CAFOD have proposed that we show support for the Pope's encyclical by signing a petition to the Prime Minister.

The petition reads:-

Inspired by our Catholic faith and Pope Francis' Encyclical, we call on you to show leadership nationally and internationally to secure fair and ambitious agreements on tackling climate change and poverty. We urge you and other world leaders to cut carbon emissions to keep global temperature rise below the dangerous threshold of 1.5°C, and to prevent climate change pushing people deeper into poverty.

The petition will be available for signing after Masses on 5 and 12 July. Ministers do take notice of petitions and letters and count them so it is well worth while to sign and support the Pope and the wellbeing of future generations.

COLLECTIONS FOR JUNE

DAY OF REFLECTION FOR GRANDPARENTS Being a Catholic grandparent brings many challenges these days. Often much is expected of you in terms of child care and you can find yourself in difficult situations when your own children no longer practice the faith and therefore you're doing your best to pass the faith on to your grandchildren. If you find yourself in this situation then why not come along to Saint Joseph's, 8 Lyndhurst Road, Ashurst, SO40 7DU on Saturday the 25th of July from 10.00am – 3.30pm for a gentle day of Prayer, Reflection and chat with other grandparents dealing with the same kind of thing. As ever the day will include Mass and a delicious lunch.
